SCHOOL BOARD (6 YEARS)

Joseph R. Hensley (D)
Mrs. Elizabeth Kleckner (D)

SCHOOL BOARD (2 YEARS)

One Republican and one Democratic city councilman were elected in the election Tuesday but the one councilman was the sum total of the Republican party's success in the city.

E. Gene Schweinsberg was high in the four man council race and finished with 9322 votes. Joseph Medure, a Democrat, finished second with 9171 votes. James A. Travers, a Democrat, was third with 8888 votes and James Gibson, a Republican, now finishing his second term was fourth with 6228 votes.

School Board Sweep

The Democrats made a grand slam in the school board race. They elected three members for the full six year terms and one for the unexpired term of two years.

Paul J. Cuba, a former teacher and football star, was high among the Democratic winners with 10,352 votes. Mrs. Elizabeth Kleckner was second with 9228 votes, and Joseph R. Hensley was third with 9072 votes. All three were elected for six year terms.

All three Republican candidates for the six year term were defeated.

Evidently numerous post-election parties were in progress during the wee-small hours of the morning today. Lights were found in a number of district homes about the city close to 3 a. m. today. The local citizens who were still up were getting late local and national returns as they were announced.

Visitors to the downtown in the vicinity of the post office were given a close up view of a beautiful new cabin boat cruising on Tuesday. The truck transporting the sea craft was parked on the Jefferson street side of the post office for some time while the driver sought refreshments before traveling on.

An unusual scene for this time of the year was observed in the North Jefferson street section early this morning. A tinner was noted up on a business block roof painting away at the tin work. The workman was thinly clad and he had no difficulty applying the paint as the temperature was mild.

Election boards did excellent work on Tuesday night in aiding The News in compiling early returns from the day's record balloting. First precincts to report with returns from any contest, as usual, were the first and second precincts of the seventh ward, the second, with a smaller vote coming in first at 8:15 o'clock and the other a few minutes later. The first precinct to report a complete total count for the entire ticket was the second of the first ward, and second was the first of the eighth ward.

He'll Change Desks In January

E. Gene Schweinsberg, elected to city council Tuesday was at his desk at two o'clock this morning when this picture was taken. He was one of two Republican candidates for major office to weather the Democratic hurricane and as the picture indicates he feels right about the whole thing.

Lawrence Is Easy Winner In Pittsburgh

Re-Elected As Mayor By Large Majority—Democrats Win Council

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Mayor David L. Lawrence and the entire Democratic slate for Pittsburgh city council today completed a routing victory over their Republican opponents.

With 424 out of 427 districts reporting, Lawrence tallied 150,699 votes to 94,394 for Republican opponent Timothy F. Ryan.

It was the largest margin of votes ever given a candidate in a mayoralty election in Pittsburgh. Frederick G. Weir led the five-man Democratic party councilmanic slate, registering 150,396 ballots in his favor, compared with 92,753 for Rody P. Marshall, the leading defeated Republican candidate.

Other Democratic councilmen elected were Thomas J. Gallagher, Water H. Demmler, Patrick T. Fagan, and A. L. Wolk.

For Allegheny county court, Homer S. Brown (D) was leading Harry M. Jones by more than 35,000 votes.

Burgesses Are Named Tuesday

Boros Name Officials—Burgess Houk Re-Elected In Ellwood City

ALDERMEN AND CONSTABLES NAMED

Republican candidates for borough offices seemed to fare better on Tuesday than did their brothers-in-arms in the City of New Castle and in county wide offices. In Ellwood City the Republican candidates made a fairly clean sweep of the race. Burgess Clyde B. Houk was re-elected for his third term and with him the following councilmen: First ward, George M. Hughes; second ward, James P. Menicic; third ward, Tony Turner; fourth ward, Clarence Scott and fifth ward, Guy M. Jarrett.

Maxwell W. Ewing was named borough auditor. Howard E. Wilson was elected Tax Collector. For school board the following were elected, Harry Zeigler, and Frank E. Potter, for six year terms. For the two year term Ralph Evans was elected.

Other Boro Elections
In Wampum a bitter fight was staged for burgess. James L. Ferrante and F. M. Miles fought it out in the primary with Mr. Ferrante winning the Republican nomination and F. M. Miles was named by the Democrats. In the balloting Tuesday Mr. Miles won.
C. C. Johnston was named burgess of Volant. I. G. Studebaker as burgess of Enon Valley. O. E. Dambaugh as burgess of Ellport.
Bessemer changed the complexion of the Republican burgess score. On the unofficial returns, Carl Montgomery, who has been burgess for the past 26 years was elected.

Hague Quits In New Jersey As Democrats Lose

Republican Candidate For Governor Decisively Defeats Hague's Candidate

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Frank ("I Am the Law") Hague, for 32 years absolute czar of the Democratic party in New Jersey, abdicated his throne today.

The action came in the wake of a smashing defeat suffered by his handpicked candidate for governor, Elmer H. Wene, at the hands of Republican Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll.

Driscoll carried Jersey City, where Hague once ruled with an iron hand, piling up 73,904 votes to Wene's 56,662.

The vote in 3298 of 3718 election districts in the state gave Driscoll 771,018 to 706,581 for his opponent.

Driscoll lost only Hudson county, where Hague still controls thousands of hangers-on. The Democratic margin there was slim: Wene 136,245, Driscoll 134,166.

Hague, tight-lipped, listened to returns in his office on Bergen avenue throughout the evening. Today, after Wene conceded defeat, he issued this statement:

"I remained as leader and head of the party and I did everything possible to elect a Democratic governor.
"Therefore, in order that the Democrats may have an opportunity before the coming primary elections in April to determine what is best for the party and themselves I believe it fitting to relieve them of any obligation to me. Therefore, I am stepping down."

Mayor O'Dwyer Again Elected

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Democratic Mayor William O'Dwyer was swept back to office in New York today with a plurality of more than 300,000 votes over his closest rival for city hall, Republican-Liberal Fusion candidate Newbold Morris.

The third man in the mayoralty race, American Laborite Rep. Vito Marcantonio, trailed a weak last. The final vote:

O'Dwyer: 1,264,600; Morris: 956,170; Marcantonio: 316,423.

Most significant factor of these returns, in the view of local political observers, was the smashing of the American Labor party as the "balance of power" group in New York politics.
Principals of the city's schools were extending the institute are:
Dr. Joseph A. Hartman, Highland avenue, and Arthur McGill school, John N. Cornelius, Oak Street and Rose Avenue schools, Peter Grittle Jr., Lincoln-Garfield and Pollock schools, and Fred Y. McClure, Maloney school.
The Tri-State Institute has been planned to bring to school administrators and their architects, in as condensed a form as possible, a synthesis of the most educationally meaningful aspect of classroom investigations.

The vote was 40,470 for Henderson and 28,620 for Holt.

Lewis Orders 375,000 Miners Back To Work

Striking Miners Told To Return To Work Immediately In Day's Order

WILL WORK UNTIL MIDNIGHT, NOV. 30

By ROBERT N. SCHWARTZ (L.N.S. Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—John L. Lewis and his 200-man policy committee of the United Mine Workers today ordered 375,000 striking soft coal miners back to work immediately and instructed them to remain in the pits until midnight Nov. 30.

They will resume work under terms, wages and conditions of employment under the contract with the soft coal operators which expired July 1, 1949.

Indications were the union will try to negotiate a new contract during the next three weeks and will walk out at midnight Nov. 30 unless a new contract agreement has been reached.

Lewis would make no clarifying announcement, however, other than that contained in a resolution passed unanimously by the policy committee in a Chicago hotel room, although he did have some other colorful remarks.

Attacks Operators
These were in a statement given to newsmen and obviously written by Lewis. The statement said that the policy committee has "acted in good faith designed to contribute to the public convenience and the welfare of the nation."

The statement said the union will again make another contribution of major magnitude to enhance the remote possibility of an agreement being reached.

Attacking the operators, the statement said:

"The coal operators have been arrogant and brutal in the withholding of their assent to a new contract... they have stooped to defame and belittle contributions of the mine workers to the national economy; they have engaged in reprehensible and clandestine intrigue with financial and political opponents of honest American labor."

Bituminous miners east of the Mississippi river have been on strike 52 days, since Sept. 19.

'Big Steel' To Meet With C.I.O. On Thursday

(BULLETIN)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 9.—(INS)—A possible settlement of the 40-day-old steel strike appeared imminent today with the announcement that U. S. Steel officials would meet with the C.I.O.-United Steelworkers in Pittsburgh tomorrow.

A U. S. Steel spokesman, who asked not to be identified, said his firm "probably would discuss" the pensions and social insurance program with the union tomorrow.

A source close to the USW in Pittsburgh said the union has agreed to meet with "big steel."

USW President Philip Murray was in conference with officials of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube company, who are expected to agree to the union's demand for a $100-a-month minimum pension program and a union-management-financed social insurance plan.

Union confirmation of tomorrow's meeting, which should bring a speedy end to the steel tie-up, was expected when Murray completes his talks with Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

New Castle School Administrators At Planning Institute

Soldier Bonus Given Approval Of State Voters

Approval Given By Better Than Five To One Margin On Tuesday

DEMOCRATS WIN IN PHILADELPHIA

By JOHN PAGET (L.N.S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—A $500 million dollar soldier bonus program today carried an indelible stamp of approval of Pennsylvania voters while the rout of the Philadelphia Republican organization in row office balloting highlighted the general election.

The non-partisan bonus, largest state-financed program of its kind in the nation, was approved by a better than five-to-one margin in incomplete returns.

Two Special Elections

The two special elections to fill vacancies for the state house of representatives, Democrats returned their candidate in the seventh district of Allegheny while Republicans held a thin 194-vote lead in Clearfield county's second district. In Allegheny, Democrat Andrew T. Fenrich topped Republican Edward F. Cook by almost two to one. In Clearfield, the lead was held in incomplete returns by Republican Charles C. Kessler over William A. Mark, Republican. Both polled more than 4,000 votes.

The Allegheny vacancy followed the death of Democrat John L. Powers while the Clearfield vacancy stemmed from the death of Republican C. G. Krise.

Bonus For 1,285,000

The bonus, endorsed by both political parties and top labor and veteran organizations, will provide $500 million.

New Wilmington Buckwheat Rodeo Thursday Evening

New Wilmington Rotary Club To Present 19th Annual Rodeo Thursday Evening

New Wilmington Rotary club will present its 19th annual "Buckwheat Rodeo" at 6:30 Thursday evening, November 10, at the New Wilmington U.P. church.

Over 400 district Rotarians are expected to attend the affair which has attracted buckwheat admirers from Florida, Texas and all points west.

Over 350 pounds of sausage and 50 gallons of buckwheat batter, not to mention 15 wheels of maple syrup, 40 pounds of butter and several barrels of coffee, are in readiness for the affair.

Mysterious Program
The biggest part of the evening's program is mysterious, with not even club members knowing what to expect.

It is known, however, that the biggest buckwheat eater will receive a prize and the district Rotary Club with the largest turnout will all be rewarded with a prize.

Paul Quinby is chairman of the committee on the rodeo, which includes Tom Cox, Roy Burnside and Jerome Daugherty.

The "Buckwheat Rodeo" got its start some 23 years ago when "Bill" McLaughry, of the New Wilmington club, put on a pancake flapping exhibition in Pittsburgh. Since that time it has kept growing until it is one of the big events of the year.

Curley Loses Out In Boston

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—(INS)—The golden voice of James Michael Curley, stormy petrel of Boston politics and one of the last of the big city "bosses", sang sorrowfully of defeat today.

The 75-year-old mayor was swept out of office by a margin of 12,000 votes after a heated five-cornered race in which "bossism" was the chief issue.

In a record turnout of nearly 300,000 voters—75 per cent of the registered total—City Clerk John B. Hynes, 52, became the new mayor.

And for Curley, who has been downed many times only to come back fighting and victorious, political observers predicted oblivion. They agreed that the veteran campaigner's age makes virtually impossible a new rally.

An Early Morning Victory Smile

District-Attorney-elect, Sherman K. Levine was photographed early this morning when the returns showed that he had a commanding lead for the office. As the picture was taken Mr. Levine was physically tired but emotionally he was out in front.

Reform Slate Ousts G.O.P. In Philadelphia

Democrats Win Victory In City Office Elections On Tuesday

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Tight-fisted Republican rule in Philadelphia was shaken to its ancient roots today by a smashing general election defeat at the hands of a Democratic reform slate.

Quaker city voters, aroused by tax scandals in the GOP-controlled city hall, swept Democrats into the four important row offices of treasurer, controller, register of wills and coroner.

The GOP has held virtually unchallenged sway in the city since 1884, when Democratic Mayor Samuel G. King's term expired. The Democrats last held all the row offices in 1937 under the Franklin D. Roosevelt banner.

Huge Protest
The tidal wave of protest rolled up victory margins ranging upward in Philadelphia for the ticket headed by fiery Richardson Dilworth, Pittsburgh-born attorney and decorated marine veteran.

Dilworth, unsuccessful Democratic mayoralty candidate in 1947, became city treasurer by defeating the Republican candidate Walter Seiler, Philadelphia meat packer.

The important fiscal post of controller went to Attorney Joseph Sill Clark, who overhauled GOP candidate Linton Nelson, and investment broker.

Democrats Joseph D. Burke and Joseph Ominsky won out over Republicans Peter F. Hagan and Dr. Henry Hopkins for the offices of register of wills and coroner, respectively.

Chest Report Due Thursday

Workers In Determined Effort To Reach $100,000 Mark In Fourth Week

New Castle Community Chest workers report Thursday the results of one big important week of campaigning at a noon meeting at the Castleton.

Almost four weeks of fund raising will have been completed at that time and a decision on the future of the drive will be determined by the Thursday results.

Last Thursday the total was upped to $92,138 or 73 per cent of a $127,350 goal. This represented one of the largest single week advances in the drive and gave every indication that Chest workers, their spirits renewed, would make a vigorous effort to bring the campaign well over the $100,000 mark.

In the most amazing political upset seen in Lawrence County in half a century, perhaps in the history of the county, the Democrats captured all but two offices in Tuesday's voting. The Republicans elected the sheriff and one city councilman.

A district attorney, a register and recorder, a jury commissioner, a city councilman, a city controller and four school directors were elected by the Democrats and the Republican hold on county and city offices was shaken as it never has been shaken before.

Big Three Open Paris Conference

To Discuss Problems Of Germany, Japan, China And Yugoslavia

By KINGSBURY SMITH

European General Manager, International News Service

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The western big three foreign ministers opened a two day conference in Paris this morning and speedily agreed to discuss the problems of Germany, Japan, China and Yugoslavia.

As they walked out of their first two-and-a-half hour session the big three—U. S. Secretary of State Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman—announced they have decided to impose secrecy over their discussions.

Schuman said: "We have much to digest."

The agenda considerably broadened the scope of the talks. It had been expected the meeting would deal with the German problem primarily with particular attention to the touchy dismantling issue.

An authorized source said the agenda includes "a long program of work" with regard to Germany, Communist China, the Japanese peace treaty and Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

Councilmen-Elect Will Be Invited To Budget Sessions

New Councilmen To Take Office In January; Two Departments Open

When council commences to compile appropriations for 1950, Eugene Schweinsberg, Republican, and Joseph Medure, Democrat, named yesterday to serve four years as councilmen, or city directors, beginning in January, will be invited to attend the meetings.

This is what Mayor John F. Haven stated today when asked by a News reporter if he proposed to invite the councilmen-elect to the budget-making.

The mayor added that, whatever plans the councilmen-elect have, can be stated at budget-making time.

Asked to what department, each of the councilmen-elect would be assigned when council reorganizes in January, Mayor Haven replied, "I do not know."

Two departments will be open, that of department of parks and property and, also the department of streets.

Joseph D. Alexander who has headed the parks and property department, and who also acted as purchasing agent, was defeated in the primaries. James Gibson who has headed the streets department, was defeated in Tuesday's election.

The line-up of the 1950 council will be comprised of four Republicans and one Democrat. The Republicans being Mayor John F. Haven, Finance Director Albert Hoyland, Safety Director Richard I. Davis and Eugene Schweinsberg. Mr. Medure will be the only Democrat.

Searching For James Gaghagan

Relatives yesterday and today searched for James Gaghagan, age 65, missing from his West Washington street room since November 4 morning. Search was made Tuesday in Cascade street's quarry section and this afternoon at West Pittsburg.

According to reports he intended to go hunting November 4. He wore dark gray, striped trousers, a brown coat, and wore spectacles. His left arm is missing.

DEMOCRATS IN SURPRISE WIN IN CITY ELECTION

feated. Mrs. Reva D. (Harry L.) Gormley was high in the Republican bracket with 7731 vote. G. Ward Whitaker was next with 5095 votes and Daniel B. Woolcock was next with 6957 votes.

For the unexpired two year term made vacant by the resignation of C. Leroy Shira, Mrs. Daisy Slater was elected with 8707 votes as against 8113 for Attorney William D. Cobau. Mr. Cobau has been filling the vacancy by appointment.

City Controller

Charles A. Kennedy, a young Democrat was elected city controller over the incumbent Republican William A. Moore. Mr. Kennedy polled 9189 votes as against 7886 for William A. Moore.

Mr. Kennedy is a young man hardly thirty, is a veteran of World War Two and like a number of the other candidates was making his first bid for political office.

The strength of the Democratic candidates was surprising. In the south side precincts they rolled up tremendous majorities and in the second, third and fourth wards cut down sharply the usual Republican majorities.

First Political Bid

The two men elected to city council are young men, making their first political bid. E. Gene Schweinsberg is a wounded veteran of the North African campaign and is thirty one years of age, one of the youngest men ever to be elected to city council. He is unmarried.

Joseph Medure, the Democratic winner is thirty three years of age, married and has two children. Unlike most of the candidates he spent the evening at home where some friends had gathered to celebrate, not the election, but Mr. and Mrs. Medure's tenth wedding anniversary. His election to city council was an anniversary present to his wife. He is an official of the Molders' Union, employed at United Engineering.

The election of four Democrats to the school board changes the political complexion of the board sharply. For many years it has been nine Republicans. Now it will be five Republicans and four Democrats.

There has not been a woman upon the board for many years, now there will be two, Mrs. Elizabeth Kleckner and Mrs. Daisy Slater.

Wood Shop For The Boys

An eighth grade junior high school student demonstrates work done on a wood lathe in the wood working class offered by the New Castle public schools through the Industrial Arts program.

Wood working is offered to all of the eighth grade boys at George Washington and Benjamin Franklin junior high schools and the ninth grade boys of Mahoning school under the Industrial Arts program which is set up by the New Castle Department of Schools.

The course was introduced into the city's schools in 1940 at the beginning of the Industrial Arts program. At that time both wood working and metal working were introduced for the regular students at the junior high schools.

Since the beginning of the program in 1940 it has expanded to include classes in printing for the seventh graders in the junior high schools, wood working for Mahoning's ninth graders and mechanical drawing at senior high school.

Industrial Arts Program

The Industrial Arts program, under the direction of Earle M. Cass, is part of an educational program which will give pupils the opportunity to gain experience in a variety of industrial occupations. Its purpose is not vocational but general education.

The courses are for straight junior or senior high school students and should not be confused with the courses for the vocational students.

Russell Remaley is teacher of the wood working course at Benjamin Franklin junior high school and John Duran is in charge of the Washington classes. Half of the Mahoning boys go to Washington each week and the other half travel.

Complete equipment, consisting of wood lathes, planers, circular saws, jointers, band saws and a variety of hand tools, are on hand for the use of the boys at both schools.

Three Hundred in Course

Three hundred boys are taking the course this year. 170 from Franklin, 96 from Washington and 28 from Mahoning.

The wood shop course consists of instruction in the use of hand tools and wood working machinery. The boys make small pieces of furniture, complete from the rough lumber to the finished product. They do the construction, finishing and upholstering.

They also do some plastic work, which includes the making of lamps, ornaments and other small objects.

The shops for the Benjamin Franklin pupils are located in the Vocation school building on the corner of Lutton and DuShane streets, right next to Franklin school. One large room is set off for the wood shop.

At George Washington the shop is located in the basement on the Mercer street side.

Complete equipment, consisting of wood lathes, planers, circular saws, jointers, band saws and a variety of hand tools, are on hand for the use of the boys at both schools.

Democrats swept now office elections in the long-entrenched Republican stronghold of Philadelphia with pluralities topping the 110,000-vote mark, despite a GOP registration of slightly more than three-to-one.

The Quaker City's most sizzling campaign in decades was fought over charges of alleged Republican corruption by the Democratic reform ticket versus GOP effort to link Democratic office-seekers with communists.

GOP Chairman William F. Meade conceded the Democratic victory two hours and 23 minutes after the polls closed. The office of mayor was not at stake.

In addition to minor offices, Democrats won the posts of treasurer, controller, register of wills and coroner. Six judges, carrying bi-partisan endorsements, were elected.

W. Leslie Wilson, county surveyor had both nominations and his election was automatic.

Individual Campaigns

What makes the Democratic landslide more remarkable is the fact that in this campaign the Democratic county and city committees were apparently not active. It appeared to be an individual

Lions Hear Of First Armistice

Lt. Col. Richard M. Jones, Of Sharon, Is Speaker, Tuesday Noon

ALSO DISCUSSES OPERATION COMET

Lt. Col. Richard M. Jones, of Sharon, an officer in the Organized Reserve was the guest speaker at Tuesday noon's luncheon meeting of New Castle Lions Club, when an Armistice Day program was presented.

Lt. Col. Jones was introduced by Lt. W. P. Stough, who is in charge of the Organized Reserve in the local district. Lt. Stough having been presented by Charles Goodman, of the local club.

Reserve Work Explained
In his talk, Lt. Col. Jones discussed the second phase of Operation Comet, which will be carried out by the Organized Reserve in the western Pennsylvania area over November 13 and 14. The problem presumes that enemy bombers have launched an atomic bomb attack on the area, have killed a number of people, and caused considerable damage and confusion. Their problem will be evacuation work, and restoring order in the area.

Discussing the Armistice, he recalled that his outfit in World War One, was stationed in the Argonne Forest, at the time of the Armistice, and lost 2,000 men while crossing the Meuse river on Armistice Day morning.

He told of the German and Allied trains meeting in the Compeigne Forest in France to discuss an Armistice on November 5, and of Marshal Foch, French leader informing them there would be no Armistice but the Germans must consent to unconditional surrender. This was finally agreed to after the Kaiser had abdicated, and a revolution broke out in Germany. The terms were harsh, he stated. The first Armistice Day was proclaimed by President Wilson in 1919. France and England followed suit with similar observances.

Plan Stag Party
The date was not made a legal holiday, however, until President Roosevelt signed a bill to this effect in 1938.

Guests of the club included: Charles Sharkey, of Towanda, N. Y.; John R. Ellison, of Butler; and George L. Wolford, of Butler. Plans were announced for the first annual stag party of the club, which will be held at Cunningham Armory, Tuesday evening, November 15. The arrangements are in charge of the past presidents of the club.

Plans were also announced for a Charter Night celebration by the Pulaski Club, which will take place in The Cathedral here, on Tuesday evening, December 6, with a dinner and program, which will be attended by representatives of the district clubs and their wives. The speaker will be Ray Keaton.

THE YOUNG GIRL'S CLOTHES PROBLEM

"My daughter who is 18 years old complains constantly because she does not have more changes of dress. She thinks that a new evening dress is an absolute 'must' almost every time she goes to a dance, which, by the way, is pretty often. I tell her that boys are hardly aware of what a girl is wearing other than the fact that she looks nice or she doesn't. What do you think?"

Answer: The younger men are, the less conscious they are of the details of a girl's clothes beyond their general effect. Placed between two girls—one dressed like a millionaire and the other in the modest clothes of a working girl—a young man will turn to the one having the greater appeal. Moreover, a man in moderate circumstances is very likely to shy away from a girl whose wardrobe is elaborate to the extreme unless, of course, he knows that her own financial circumstances may well bear it, since he will have the bills to pay if he marries her. He may well know that such a woman will lead him to near the poorhouse with her extravagance and craving for clothes.

If your daughter hesitates to wear a dress many times because she thinks it would indicate a lack of money, she is suffering from a false sense of values. Any man whose appraisal of her would be in proportion to her wealth should be sent on his way—the sooner the better.

Question: When presenting a man to a group of other men and women, how should I proceed? That is, should he be introduced to each woman separately and then to each man?

Answer: No. Do not single out the women in the group and then go back and give the men's names. If the first member of the group is a woman, introduce the man to her, for instance: "Miss Blank, Mr. Newcome," then proceed with the other members of the group in the order in which they are standing or sitting.

Present your problems to Miss Marke who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Mission Gives 432 Meals In October

Remodeling Dormitory In Order To Make Extra Bed Space For Transient Men

City Rescue Mission, 17 South Mercer street had an extra busy month during October, according to the report issued by the superintendent, Rev. P. Dickinson Marshall. During the period from November 1 to November 31, the mission tented 214 beds, 432 meals and issued 1,328 articles of clothing to the needy. Twenty-three Gospel services were conducted in the mission while the superintendent participated in six services outside the mission.

Concentrated plans are under way for the observance of Thanksgiving, not only for those who attend the mission but for the needy of the city who will have a very "slim" Thanksgiving dinner unless someone lends a hand. Baskets are to be packed for Thanksgiving and an effort is being made to have a chicken in every basket.

The need of food for the baskets has arisen and any food donations will be called for by the mission head. Those sending in donations of food should designate them either for the Thanksgiving baskets or for the feeding of transient men. Many items of canned goods are needed to feed transient men who quarter over night at the mission.

More To Be Housed
The number of men to be housed at the mission this winter will be greater than in the past. In order to accommodate them partitions are being removed in the men's dormitory in order that additional cots may be placed there. Single mattresses and beds that will be added to the dormitory room.

Superintendent Marshall is planning to install a men's lobby where the men may rest, read or relax during their short stay at the mission. The need for leather and wood combination chairs and a couch has arisen. A few large plants would aid in furnishing this new section which is to be added.

The women's auxiliary, which was recently organized, is desirous of securing some quilt frames and old cotton blankets for padding the quilts which are to be made and given to the needy.

In looking ahead for Christmas, plans are being made to renovate any old toys that are given to the mission. Transient men will be used in repairing these toys for the kiddies of the city.

The Mission will celebrate its 38th anniversary next week with services in the First Baptist church. Rev. Claude Moore, international president of the Union Gospel Missions, will be the speaker.

William Penn's father, Admiral Penn, loaned King Charles II, of England, 16,000 pounds. The king gave William Penn title to which is now Pennsylvania as payment for that loan. The wealth of Pennsylvania has been estimated recently as $30,000,000,000.

Eighteen States Have Approved Veterans' Bonus

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—(INS) Voters in 18 states, including Pennsylvania, now have approved World War II veteran's bonus payments approaching three billion dollars.

Pennsylvania and New Jersey were the only states balloting on soldiers' bonuses at yesterday's general elections, but the issue was rejected in New Jersey.

More than one-third of the nation's 48 states now have passed bonuses. Only Missouri and West Virginia have referendums scheduled for 1950.

Most Generous—Pennsylvania's electorate has been the most generous in the nation thus far, exceeding New York by 100-million dollars in the total amount to be paid its World War II veterans.

Illinois is giving the highest individual payment, however, because of a different range of eligibility dates. A maximum of $900 is available to the Illinois World War II veterans.

In Pennsylvania, the maximum payment will be $500.

Voters in Missouri will ballot on a $150-million dollar bonus referendum in 1950, while in West Virginia a 90-million dollar referendum comes up for decision next year.

HEADACHE PILLS

According to the radio, there must be a big business in headache pills. People are urged to take ITNOXUM pills. The pain will vanish and everything will be lovely.

Pain is an indication or a warning. It is like a thermometer or a pressure gauge. When Dad notices that the thermometer is getting low he shovels coal. It does not tinker with the thermometer. If the gauge shows too much air in the tube, you don't blame the gauge.

Pain in the head or the back or the toe is a signal. It should be investigated.

It is something like a noise or a squeak in an engine. The engineer or mechanic gets busy right away.

The trouble may be slight; or it may be serious but he wants to know. He does not want to have a wreck.

Pain pills may stop an ache but the wreck may come later.

State Chairman Hails Re-Election Of Judge Hirt

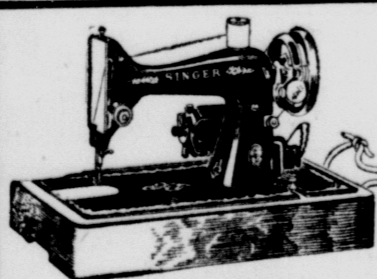

HARRISBURG, Nov. 9.—(INS)—GOP State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor today hailed approval of the soldiers' bonus and re-election of Superior Court Judge William E. Hirt as an endorsement of Republican administration.

"The victory of the state-wide Republican ticket—Superior Court Judge Hirt and the veterans bonus—demonstrates again that Pennsylvanians believe firmly in good, honest, efficient and economical government and that they will ever keep the faith with those who served on the battlefields," Taylor said.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A lawsuit that actually reached the courts, and will cause many a headache before it is settled, concerns a man who had decided not to pay any more premiums on his hundred-thousand-dollar life-insurance policy. It was due to lapse at midnight of a certain day. Four hours before the moment of expiration, the man boarded a train for Boston, and retired to his drawing room. The next morning the porter found him dead in his berth.

Did he die before midnight? If so, his estate could collect a hundred thousand dollars from the insurance company. If he died after one second past midnight, however, his policy was worthless. Both sides lined up doctors willing to testify in their favor. None of them could be certain, of course, of the exact moment of the man's death.

Possibly a professional detective story writer—or the reader of these lines—could offer a satisfactory solution!

Sadie Hawkins Dance Is Enjoyed By Club

A successful Sadie Hawkins dance was held by the New Castle A.C.R.Y. club of the St. Nicholas Orthodox Greek Catholic church Saturday evening at the Polish Falcon hall.

The hall was decorated to give it the atmosphere of Dogpatch Hollow. A large group of the dancers were dressed as Daisy Maes and Little Abners. Present at the dance was the Rev. Fr. Stephen J. Kolcun, spiritual adviser of the

A.C.R.Y. club, who greeted out of town visitors.

The success of the dance can be attributed to the hard work of Harry Yankura, president of the club, John Vargo, Mr. and Mrs. John Teplica, George Kovach, Eddie Vargo, Joseph Mutsko, Mr. and Mrs. John Pazzo, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Selemon, Julia Polenick, Helen Soloninka, Ann Kovach, Mary Teplica, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Totin and Helen Kolcun.

Pollock Pupils Visit Some Faraway Places

Ever visit some distant country or other interesting place? If you have, then you're fortunate, for many of us can only wish to travel, but never do.

However, school children have this opportunity every day of the year. Besides the regular reading, 'ritin' and 'rithmetic of every-day classes, the youngsters have the chance to visit other countries and interesting spots in their own country.

The minute the children of the Pollock avenue school step into their geography class they are in another world. Perhaps it's India, India... with all its intrigue and mystery. Each child pictures himself as one of the natives, living in tents and wearing the loose flowing robes. They see themselves sauntering down the narrow streets on slow moving camels.

Take Trip
Or perhaps they imagine a trip on the Mississippi in our own country. What could be more fun in a child's life than to take a journey on the powerful steamboat of the Mississippi? Stand on an upper deck and watch the tiny fishing boats far below, or watch the cities on the distant shore as you pass. Soon you come to New Orleans, city of the famous Mardi Gras, and the great Gulf of Mexico.

Through the use of visual aids, many children take an imaginary field trip to the outdoors to learn some of our native trees. In a small boy's heart, they look real enough to climb or their fruit good enough to eat. Under the direction of their teacher, Mr. Lucidore, these youngsters find many interesting facts concerning this world of ours.

There are so many things to learn in school, that it seems as if the day just isn't long enough.

Their reading classes prepare them to be able to read the geography books, health classes give them an idea of how other countries compare with ours in habits of cleanliness and foods... each class contributes something to the next class.

During this Education Week, parents should take advantage of the opportunity of visiting the school and see just how a real class is conducted and what their child does in school.

Tifereth Members Hear Rabbi Shapiro

Pittsburgh Rabbi Guest Speaker At Tifereth Israel Sisterhood Tuesday

November meeting of the Tifereth Israel Sisterhood was held Tuesday evening at the Tifereth Israel Synagogue, South Jefferson street. Eighty members and friends attended.

Mrs. Maurice Slavovskiy, pianist, opened the meeting with "America," followed by a prayer by Mrs. Gus Slavovskiy.

Greetings were extended to the group by Mrs. Abe Cohen, president, and after a short business session, Mrs. Cohen presented Mrs. Jules Lipschutz, program chairman. Mrs. Lipschutz led in singing "God Bless Our Synagogue," and then presented Rabbi Jules Lipschutz, who led the oath of esteem to the flags of the U.S.A. and Israel. The audience repeated the oath after the rabbi.

Larry Haines, popular young pianist, played two Chopin numbers, "Militaire Polonaise" in A Major and "Waltz in E Minor." The applause showed the appreciation of the assembly. It was hoped that the young man would come to the Synagogue and play again.

Introduces Speaker

Following the musical treat, Mrs. Lipschutz introduced the guest speaker, Rabbi Dr. Joseph Shapiro, leader of Poale Zedeck Synagogue, Pittsburgh. Mrs. Lipschutz told of the wonderful work accomplished by the rabbi in Pittsburgh.

Rabbi Shapiro responded graciously and expressed delight in receiving an invitation to speak to the New Castle Jewry. The distinguished guest spoke on the subject "Romance of People," which was both humorous and educational. The serious dealt with the Balfour Treaty and the first president of Israel, Chaim Weizman.

"At the present time," he also explained, "the flag of Israel hangs with all the flags at the United Nations. Dr. Belkan in 1903 had a very young Jewish, Fanny Meyerowitz, make the flag of Israel. She is similar to the American Betsy Ross. The flag has blue bars on a white field with a Mogen David, or Star of David in the center. These colors are also used on the Prayer Cloth, or Tallis.

As his talk drew to a conclusion, the rabbi spoke of the trials, tribulations, and sufferings of the Jewish people in the two thousand years before they were given the Promised Land of Israel.

Expresses Thanks

Mrs. Lipschutz expressed her thanks to the rabbi for his inspiring talk and also her delight and the pleasure of these present for having such a capable speaker. The singing of Hatikvah closed the meeting, accompanied by Mrs. Slavovskiy at the piano.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Norman Berkman, Mrs. Gus Slavovskiy, Mrs. Edward Buntman, Mrs. Morris Becker, Mrs. Sam Bobick, Mrs. A. Shapiro, Mrs. Ed Master and Mrs. Simon Cohen.

Mrs. F. Keller and Mrs. A. Stern were new members taken into the organization at the meeting. There will be a board meeting at the Synagogue on November 22 at 1:30 p.m.

Governor Says New Taxes Will Now Be Needed

Bonus Can Only Be Financed By New Taxes; Legislature To Decide Kind

HARRISBURG, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff today said it would take at least "three to four months before first payments of the half-billion dollar veterans bonus would be sent out. Duff said he had been advised "that it would be three to four months before the bonds could be printed and payment will start at the earliest possible date the money can be had."

Duff stated emphatically the bonus would have to be paid by "new taxes."

"It is a great sum of money and will have to be raised by taxes and everybody will have to help pay. There's no use kidding ourselves, you don't get something for nothing," the governor said. "The next General Assembly will have to decide the nature of the taxes," he pointed out.

Body Of One Man Trapped In Cave-In Sighted By Rescuers

SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—(INS)—The body of one of two men trapped in a 60-foot-deep tunnel cave-in was sighted early today by rescue workers who had been digging feverishly through yesterday afternoon and last night to reach the paid.

Signifying defeat in the desperate battle to save the lives of both buried men, the body was discovered lying crushed under fallen timbers at the bottom of the shaft running beneath the University of Washington campus.

It could not yet be identified as a construction crew of 35 workers made preparations to bring the body to the surface, drenched by a heavy rain.

Both men — James McNabb, about 35, of Auburn, Wash., and Ed L. Olson of Seattle—were buried alive under tons of sandy dirt shortly before noon yesterday while they were at work in the tunnel, part of a network of utility tubes being built at the campus.

China's unused resources, despite the age of the country, are said to be similar to those of the United States 400 years ago.

Fact-Finding Board Likely In Coal Strike

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Industry sources predicted today that government mediators will propose a fact-finding board in the coal strike at a Thursday meeting with John L. Lewis and mine owners.

Federal mediation director Cyrus S. Ching apparently has laid the groundwork for such a move. He has talked separately the past few days with the United Mine Workers president and leaders of the various segments of the soft coal industry.

Preliminary Talks

Ching will conclude these preliminary discussions today in a meeting with George Love, head of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., and chief spokesman for northern and western producers.

He has called all parties in the dispute to meet with him at 10 a. m. Thursday in a big joint session.

Operators fully expect the government to resort to fact-finding as the solution to the 52-day walk-out of 375,000 mine workers. Some already have started preparing detailed statements on their case for submission to such a board.

The big question is whether Lewis would consent to appear before a fact-finding panel if it is set up outside the Taft-Hartley law with power to recommend terms for settlement of the coal wage dispute.

Union High School Students Have Poll

Social studies classes of the Union High School conducted an "election" poll in the class rooms on Tuesday, to determine the thinking of the township citizens as reflected in their children.

The poll for county officers went as the election returns showed after most of the votes were tabulated early this morning. The "voters" at the school showed Coen 229, Buzzard 120 for sheriff; McCann 194, Potter 135 in register and recorder fight; Levine 212 and Fullerton 116 in the district attorney battle.

Let 'Em Relax

It's easy to see that the fast-growing child under three needs lots of rest. Most of us are careful about naps. Most of us watch for irritability or other signs that a youngster is tired.

There's another period, too, at which very rapid growth takes place. That's at adolescence—the time when boys and girls are beginning to become adults. Around age 13 to 16 or 17 years of age, young people need a good deal of rest.

Naturally, we aren't likely to be successful if we try to insist on naps. That's "baby stuff" to them. Unfortunately, though, we parents often take a rather moralistic attitude toward some of the ways young people get their rest during these years. We don't believe they should lie abed in the mornings. It's not good for character or something. Yet this is one way—on Saturdays at least—when extra rest can be secured.

Loading around—another habit that bothers some of us—is also a legitimate way through which young people get some of the rest and relaxation they need. It's not good for character or something. Yet this is one way—on Saturdays at least—when extra rest can be secured.

Let 'em relax.

One argument occurred again this year. This is the question of how far from the polls a watcher can work. In one instance it was insisted that he must be 100 feet from the polls. Actually a watcher can work within ten feet of the polls during the day and then is permitted to watch the counting of the ballot after the polls are closed.

DAIRY RESEARCH UNIT PLANNING "OPEN HOUSE"

The new dairy research laboratory and bull barn under construction during the past year at the Pennsylvania State college will be formally opened during a two-day "open house," November 18 and 19.

Among those invited to attend are officials and representatives of dairy artificial breeding central and co-operative, including the Artificial Breeding Co-operative of Lawrence County.

Much of the progress made in dairy artificial breeding in Lawrence county and throughout the state stems from research work at the college. Facilities for this work are now improved and expanded.

The dedicatory ceremony will be held at 2 p. m., November 18, in room 117 of the Dairy building. Visitors will have opportunity for going through the whole set-up.

MUST ALWAYS OBSERVE FIRE PRECAUTIONS

Under control, fire is one of man's greatest benefactors; uncontrolled, it is man's worst enemy. Fire causes death, devastation and suffering. Statistics show about 12,000 persons burned to death each year, thousands more injured—some permanently, and a loss of over a billion dollars a year in value of time, wages and property losses.

Causes of fires in homes are many. Fire hazards could be greatly reduced if causes were observed and hazards eliminated.

Among the most common causes for fires in homes are: defective stoves, furnaces, pipes, chimneys and electric wiring.

Careless use of matches, cigarettes, gasoline, kerosene, cleaning fluids, lamps, candles and gas appliances.

Spontaneous combustion. Overheated electric appliances. Careless burning of refuse.

Allowing papers, magazines and other rubbish to collect in attic or cellar.

Open fireplace and open flame near curtains.

SHEER TO HEAVY NYLON FABRICS NOW AVAILABLE

All nylon and part nylon fabrics are on the market, from sheer fine nets to the heavier upholstery fabrics. The beauty of all nylon, is its non-shrinking and non-stretching qualities.

Nylon fabrics are durable, washable and hold their original shape. Even the sheerest materials are strong. Neither the home laundry nor dry cleaning damages these delicate threads. Nylon is rot-proof and resistant to moths, mildew and flames. Unless treated, the blended fabrics do not have these qualities. Nylon is lightweight.

Because nylon is very durable, it is blended with wool for men's socks to give better wear. Wool suiting that is blended with nylon will give longer wearing cuffs, collars and buttonholes on suits.

Because of this blending of fibers, shoppers must learn to read labels carefully to know what care is needed for satisfactory service. For example, if nylon is combined with wool, the label will tell you to wash the fabric like wool; if nylon is blended with silk, handle as silk. It is advisable to read all labels, then following cleaning directions carefully.

Election Result
In Philippines
Still Uncertain

MANILA, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Incomplete returns from yesterday's Philippine election, attended by disorders that reportedly took an unconfirmed toll of 100 lives, showed President Elpidio Quirino holding a slim lead today over his principal rival, Jose Laurel.

The issue remained in doubt as an unofficial tabulation by the Manila Chronicle 20 hours after the polls closed gave Quirino a margin of only 4,010 votes over Laurel in scattered returns from the capital city and the provinces.

The newspapers' tally showed 410,800 ballots cast for the president's reelection as against 406,700 for Laurel, the Nationalist party candidate who was president of the Philippines during the Japanese war time occupation.

Trailing badly was Jose Avelino, nominee of a dissident offshoot of Quirino's Liberal party, with 125,407 votes.

WHAT'S GOING ON AT FORD

1. "BUT WHAT ABOUT THE LAYOFFS?" Late in 1947 Ford Engineering Vice-President Harold Youngren gave "clay model X-2900" the last of many approvals. After fourteen months of work, this top-secret car, with some slight modifications, was ready for production as the 1949 Ford. The next problem was: how to keep men employed while machines stopped for one of the greatest model changes in Ford history. Usually, in the automobile industry, most workers were laid off while machines and assembly lines were changed over for new models. It was a big problem—one that had never been solved. But Ford was determined to try—started planning and working to keep Ford employees on the job.

2. PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE. Months before change-over, engineers made an extended plant survey, studying every operation, figuring how to keep men working. They worked out a detailed schedule for the vast change-over, keeping as many operations going as possible. Result: in all Ford, Mercury and Lincoln assembly plants across the U. S., layoff figures were the lowest in Ford history.

3. STOCK PILE. At "The Rouge" foundry, men and machines were kept busy manufacturing and storing sixty thousand cylinder blocks, shown above stacked nine high along entire south end of building. Foundry worked three weeks out of five during the change-over. It was one of many ways Ford planning avoided layoffs—and brought steadier employment and more wages to Ford workers.

MEN WORKING TO KEEP MEN WORKING

Ford is trying to lick a major problem—big layoffs for model change-over

FOR many months now, Ford Motor Company has been making a determined effort to solve one of the great human problems involved in making automobiles—the large-scale layoffs which usually come with retooling for a model change.

Ford's major attack on this big problem developed from a desire to provide workers with the kind of security they want—the chance to work continuously at good wages.

Results of Ford's first efforts were encouraging. Of the 60,000 workers at the River Rouge factory, only about a quarter—16,200 to be exact—were laid off for any time at all during conversion to 1949 models. All plants set similar records.

The Ford people say they are far from satisfied with the gains made to date. But they can report definite progress. And they're working and planning for future conversions. They hope to do even better with future change-overs. Certainly Ford has made a real advance toward steadier employment in what has always been regarded as a seasonal industry.

It's part of the Ford way of doing business—making the best possible products in the best possible way—to benefit employee, employer, and the nation as a whole.

5. NO LAYOFF. During the change-over, Joe Lucas, with Ford since 1923, was transferred from the final assembly line to Plant Maintenance, under Foreman A. F. Zulewski. He was one of many thousands kept employed by such planned moves. Ford believes such planning pays off—with steadier employment and more security for Ford employees, more efficient operation for the company, and better economic health for the whole nation. That's the Ford way.

6. VACATION WITH PAY. That's Ed Aldrich, Motor Mechanic at the Lincoln Plant, with Alice his wife and Alice his daughter. He went to Miami to visit his father during the change-over—one of many employees who elected to take their paid vacations during the idle period. That was part of the plan to keep men on the payroll. Such careful planning for the future is part of the Ford way of doing business—to benefit employee, employer, and the nation.

4. MEN AT WORK. Tons of glass were made and stored during retooling. Steel operations, too, continued at top speed. Parts production was stepped up. All these were unprecedented moves—some said revolutionary—planned ahead by the men who planned the new and improved Fords, Mercurys and Lincolns. They're planning now for even better results with future change-overs.

Only Baruch Plan Is Acceptable On Atomic Control

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 9. —The United States is ready to inform Russia in outspoken terms today that atomic control agreement is possible only on the basic principles of the U. N. assembly-approved Baruch plan.

John Dewey Hickerson, assistant U. S. Secretary of state in charge of atomic affairs, will hammer home to the Russians this afternoon the final word of the United States by rejecting all Russian counter-claims.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jacob Malik again has brought forward the previously rejected Russian resolution calling for simultaneous atom control and prohibition pacts. His resolution, which demands continuation of the U. N. atomic energy commission, seeks to once more pin all blame for failure to reach atom control agreements on the United States and Britain.

Malik announced last night in U. N. that Russian scientists have attained "tremendous knowledge" in the atomic field. He gave no details but added that "the elaboration of the manufacture of atomic weapons is no longer a secret".

Honor Parents At Oak Street School

Children At Oak Street School Honor Parents During Education Week

Three first grade reading parties were held Tuesday afternoon at the Oak Street school.

Parents were guests at the school in the afternoon. Reading classes were held so that parents could hear their children reading in a group. They were given the opportunity to see their child's workbooks and to ask questions that night aid them in understanding school problems.

The children in Miss Hovis and Mrs. Knapp's rooms treated their mothers and fathers to candy in clever favors of turkeys. These favors had been made by the children. In Miss Dodd's first grade, refreshments were served by the children to their parents. The rooms were gaily decorated with drawings and school papers of the pupils.

In the second grade groups, each parent was sent an invitation to come when their own child would be reading. In this way, each parent was sure to be present for his own child's group.

Parents Invited

All parents were invited to attend school at any time in the higher grades.

During Education Week it is an opportunity for parents to see and compare their child's work with the rest of the class, and to see the progress they are making. It is also an opportunity for those who do not attend the P.T.A. meetings to meet the teachers and talk with them.

However, the teachers expressed the opinion that they wish more parents would feel free to visit the school at any time and discuss any problems, or watch the children at work. This is especially true in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, for some parents seem to lose contact with school during those years.

The Education Week program brought out a large number of parents. It is hoped that other parents will be interested and attend school with their child during the week, or any other week.

Bonus Payments May Be Started Within 90 Days

HARRISBURG, Nov. 9.—(INS)—

The commonwealth will begin distributing payments of the $500,000,000 soldiers' bonus "by the middle of February."

State Adj. Gen. Frank A. Weber, charged with the mechanics of paying the bonus, said "We will try to make first payments within the next 90 days."

He said leading up to the payment will be an intensive information program, including a question and answer pamphlet for veterans.

to acquaint ex-G.I.'s with the method of obtaining the compensation.

Weber warned veterans not to be hasty in sending in individual queries, since "that will tie up the works for everybody."

"Gov. James H. Duff has directed that World War II compensation be paid as soon as possible," Weber added.

Girl Scout Leaders To Gather Thursday

Arrangements have been made by Mrs. C. C. McDermott, co-chairman of the training committee of the Girl Scouts of New Castle, and Miss Alice Welter, president of the Leaders' association, for the second fall session of fun and instruction.

All registered adults will attend, and new comers who are interested in the program are invited to "Come Along With Us" (the 1949 Girl Scout slogan). The group will convene in the rooms on the second floor of the Penn Power Service building on South Jefferson street, just below the square at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday evening, November 10.

Mrs. R. A. Myers, public relations chairman, and Mrs. H. Ward Lewis, organization chairman, are most anxious that leaders present their new assistants and committee members at this meeting.

Leaders are to take their troop record books and the song books, "Sing Together" and ditty bags. Those having special troop problems are to have them ready in writing. All leaders are to turn in a written order for the number of Girl Scout calendars needed for their troops.

Mrs. D. B. Forsyth, executive director, will conduct the training. The agenda will cover review of "Troop Government," "Records and How to Set Them Up," "Long Term Planning," and seasonal games. As requested, there will be a sing.

New Castle High 'Canes Hope To Chase Warren Jinx Friday Night

Undefeated Season Aim Of Strong Hurricane

Friday night is not November 13. All other factors for the pending Warren-New Castle clash remind one of black cats, broken mirrors, and other type of jinxes.

The two high school football eleven have clashed on the gridiron 16 times. Warren has emerged victorious on eight occasions, lost six times, and two games have ended in stalemates.

Let's Chase The Jinx

New Castle won the first three games of the present series starting in 1934. Since then the victories have been few and far between. Warren has the best record of any New Castle opponents that appear on the schedule regularly.

The record however fails to tell the complete story of the rivalry. Since 1942, three games have been settled by one point margins. All favored Warren. In the same 1942, New Castle lost one game in the regular season and went on to win the WPIAL crown. Warren was the team to do it, 7 to 6. During the last two seasons, 1947 and 1948, the local Red Hurricane has lost only two games, both to Warren by the score of 14 to 13, and 6 to 0.

Warren Confident

New Castle had a pair of fine high school football teams during those seasons, but the Warren jinx was more potent. The Black Panthers feel quite confident they can do the trick at New Castle, regardless of earlier grid performances; the record of the series bears out their feelings.

Coach Phil Bridenbaugh and his assistant coaches got serious drill for the Harding clash underway yesterday afternoon. This year's Red Hurricane plans to suffer no let-down as previous teams have experienced. It does plan to continue unbeaten at the expense of Warren and its opponent in the WPIAL game November 26.

A check on blocking assignments and a review of plays against the second team was on Tuesday afternoon's agenda.

Buck Tate continues to take it easy in practice sessions. His place on the line is handled by Dick Burr and Mike Banko.

John Roussos and Ray Latsko alternated at the fullback slot, and "Big Jaw" also ran some plays from the left half position in place of Jimmy Altman. The latter was absent.

Warren is a T-formation team that employs the variations, such as a winged T and even double winged T, sometimes changing into a straight double wing with a direct pass.

Ray Robinson handles the quarterbacking with skill. He's a good fader and a very good passer. Warren, for the most part, employs the forward pass as a part of its offensive pattern. The Friday visitors don't call a pass when its third and seven in safe territory. They pass on any down and from most any part of the field.

Paul Smith supplies the Warren backfield with power from his fullback spot. A pair of speedsters, Paul Willoughby and Dennis Pardee, operate at the halves.

Warren, like New Castle, has been handicapped by a lack of speed most of the season. Injuries have also taken their toll, especially in the Warren line. At the beginning of the season, Warren averaged 196 pounds per man in the forward wall. Injuries to a pair of big tackles has brought the average line weight down to well below 180 pounds.

Quarterbacks Greet Gridders

69 Quarterback Club Introduced To New Castle High Squad, Hartman-Book Speak

Despite the hotly contested city and county election Tuesday evening, the 69 Quarterback club at the Elks had the largest turnout of the season to date, augmented by 26 members of the New Castle High undefeated football team.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the men and their young guests sat down to grilled steaks that fairly melted in your mouth. After a two-hour workout last evening the young gridders tore into those steaks as if it was Warren High. The boys and men, certainly, enjoyed a splendid dinner. The blessing was intoned by Austin Cowmeadow before eating got under way.

Hear Names of Each

Reuben Kennedy assumed the toastmaster role and handled the job even better than last week. He is improving right along and now qualifies as an after-dinner master of ceremonies with the best of them.

Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh was the first speaker called on, and after a few well chosen remarks about Warren, introduced each of the young football players present and told what class they were in at school. The Quarterbacks were amazed at the number of seniors on the 1949 team. Dick Burr responded for the team and thanked the Elks club Quarterback for the dinner invitation. Dick made a big hit.

Hartman-Book Speak

Next to speak was Joe Hartman, Principal of Highland and Arthur McGill schools and a former New Castle High and Grove City college gridders, who is the chief New Castle High scout. Hartman gave a very interesting talk on "Scouting" and knows his subject thoroughly. Hartman has scouted Har-Brack, Aliquippa and Warren. He thinks Warren may give the locals trouble this Friday. "They are big and fast," Hartman said.

Principal of Senior High Clare Book was the final speaker, and told of the scholastic requirements for scholarships to colleges and said that the football boys today must be good scholars as well as gridders. All football men must maintain scholastic averages to be able to play.

Movies Are Shown

It was announced that the United Engineering & Foundry company is sponsoring a special train to Pittsburgh for the New Castle and either McKeesport or Mt. Lebanon playoff game on Saturday, November 26, at Pitt stadium. Assistant Football Coach Bill Klee presented movies of the entire New Castle-Aliquippa game last week as the concluding feature on the star-studded program and the men are eagerly looking forward to the dinner next week.

Flyers-Hornets Tangle Tonight

(By International News Service) The St. Louis Flyers—biggest threat to the Cleveland Barons' first place position in the Western division of the American Hockey League—meet the Pittsburgh Hornets in Pittsburgh tonight.

But there is no immediate danger of the Barons' losing their lead over the Flyers before Saturday night when they meet the Buffalo Bisons, even though the Barons have no games scheduled before that time.

The Flyers have 15 points and the Barons have 19. Other American league games scheduled for tonight include the Cincinnati Mohawks at Buffalo and the Hershey Bears at Springfield.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Branch Rickey (right), president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, shakes hands with manager Burt Shotton after announcing that he would be retained as manager for the 1950 season. "He's my man," Rickey said. "That's all there is to it."

Shotton Rehired To Manage Bums

Branch Rickey Announces Shotton As 1950 Manager, No Contract Signed

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Burt Shotton was rehired Tuesday to manage the National League champion Brooklyn Dodgers in 1950.

The announcement of the one-year arrangement came from Dodger President Branch Rickey in the presence of Shotton. Rickey said no contract had been signed, adding:

"What Burt and I have is the nearest thing to a gentlemen's agreement you can get in baseball."

Shotton expressed confidence in the future, declaring that he thought the Dodgers could win the pennant again next season "with the same personnel, if necessary."

However, he added, some trade plans are being hatched. Some doubt had been cast on Shotton's reappointment because of the Dodgers' dismal showing in the world series, in which they bowed to the New York Yankees, winning only one of the five series games played.

After piloting the Dodgers to the National League pennant in 1947, Shotton retired within the Brooklyn organization until July of 1948, when Leo Durocher left his job as Brooklyn manager to become pilot of the New York Giants.

The white-haired Ohioans has been in charge of the Dodgers ever since.

Bessemer High Hosts Freedom

Class B Rivals Clash Thursday Night Under Lights; Ciccone Seeks Win

Bessemer High football team prepares to complete its season Thursday night at home against Freedom. The Cementers are still eligible for a Tri-county playoff game with Zelienople but plans for that fracas have not been announced.

Freedom is not a member of the conference and the result of the Thursday game has no effect on the Bessemer-Zelienople standing.

Hard At Work

Coach William Ciccone has his twice defeated Cementers hard at work in preparation for the highly regarded Freedom Bulldogs. Bessemer has been a hot and cold team all season and the cold results show losses to both Lowellville and Zelienople by very slim margins.

Freedom has won four games, lost three and tied two. One of the losses was a close, 7-6, decision to Class A Beaver. Freedom shellaced the Shenango Wildcats 24 to 0. Bessemer, in one of its hottest days, took the measure of the Shenango eleven, 40 to 0.

Knickerbockers Top Olympians

(By International News Service) It didn't take long for those ex-Kentucky Wildcats—now the Indianapolis Olympians—to catch up with their first National Basketball association defeat.

The Olympians were spanked, 79 to 64, by the New York Knickerbockers last night. It was only the second start for the Olympians, who trailed after the opening minutes of the second quarter.

Pirates Acquire New Infielder

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 9.—(INS)—Branch Rickey, the Brooklyn president, pulled another quickie yesterday and sold Henry (Hank) Schenz to the Pittsburgh Pirates for a "nominal" sum of cash.

"I practically gave him away," Rickey said in New York. News-men smiled politely and estimated the deal cost Pittsburgh $20,000.

General manager Roy Hamer announced the purchase last night and said Schenz was acquired "strictly for infield insurance." But most observers looked at the deal as another victory for Rickey.

Grover's Are Not Holding Titans Any Too Lightly

GROVE CITY, Pa., Nov. 9.—After successfully getting past Juniata on Saturday, Grove City football team got down to work preparing for the annual game with Westminster on Saturday.

Coach Loveless plans to spend special time this week on sharpening up the ball-handling. The inability of the Grover backs to hang on to the ball almost cost them the ball game against the fighting Juniata eleven.

Titans Can Be Tough
Despite the fact that Westminster absorbed a rough 27 to 6 loss to Waynesburg last Saturday, the Grover's are not treating them lightly. Last season the Wolverines traveled over to New Wilmington expecting a soft touch and were lucky to get away with a 6-0 victory. Westminster has a big line backed up by a quartet of fast rugged backs. The Titans use the two-plate system all the way.

No serious injuries were received at Juniata. Loveless limited several of the crippled Grover's to part-time work and they should be fully recovered for the Westminster encounter. Again, as in every game this year, little Slippin' Sammy Restivo was the big gun offensively for the Grover's. He scored

Gardini, Grappler, Once Opera Student

Because He's Only 5 Feet 6 1/2 Inches He Quit As A Boxer

Wrestlers of today are of a different type than the grapplers of yesteryear. Like Hackenschmidt, Gotch, Stanley and Waldek Zbyszko, Farmer Jenkin, nowadays the majority of them are graduates of college and being blessed with a rugged physique and a knowledge of wrestling turn to the mat to earn riches quick. Others at times have occupied the limelight of the stage, at least this being the case of Gardini, who wrestles Cyclone Anaya, Mexican champion here November 16.

According to Al Haft who directs an aggregation of grapplers from his Columbus, O., office, Gardini is a singer, who does well with opera singing and also the "Boogie Woogie" type. According to Haft it was only a few years ago since Gardini studied operatic singing at the Baltimore Conservatory of Music and his spare time now is spent in listening to operatic records.

Benito (that is his first name) is said to have a special liking for the movies and already has appeared in "shorts".

Gardini was born in Baltimore on Independence day, 1917, and is one of 18 children. His parents were born in Italy, but now operate a produce market in Baltimore.

Benito, athletically-bent, first tried boxing but gave it up in favor of wrestling, because he is only five feet six and one-half inches tall. He is carded to grapple with rugged Anaya in the main bout of a show which will have a 30 minutes or one fall match and an Australian match, and if the latter is as exciting as was that of several weeks ago, fans will have seen some exciting moments in addition to some ludicrous scenes by ten o'clock, November 16.

Vets Ready For Armistice Day

Arrangements For Annual Armistice Day Event Have Been Completed

FINAL MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

Twenty-six organizations and ten bands will participate in the Armistice Day parade which will be held Friday night at 7 o'clock. Final arrangements for the parade were made at a parade committee meeting which was held at the Legion Home.

Parade Marshal, Major Alfred Barnes, has appointed the following division marshals: 1st division A. E. Walker; 2nd division, John F. Stoner; 3rd division, Morton Love; 4th division, Orlando Calazza; 5th division, Herman Steinbrink. Leading the parade will be Major General Daniel Strickler, commander of the 28th Infantry Division and lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania. General Strickler will be accompanied by city and county officials, distinguished guests, and Gold Star Mothers. The general will proceed directly to the reviewing stand on North Jefferson street to review the parade.

Transportation Arranged
Transportation arrangements have been made by Orlando Calazza for Disabled Veterans, Gold Star Mothers, Spanish War Veterans and others who must ride. All those needing transportation are requested to report to Mr. Calazza at the Legion Home before 6:30 p. m. on Friday night. It will be necessary that this transportation proceed to the parade starting point soon after 6:30, so riders are urged to be on time. Many prizes are to be awarded for various types of units in the parade, namely: bands, floats and marching units. Prizes for the marching units will be based on the percentage of paid-up members actually marching. Unit commanders must report their membership strength and the total number marching to the marshal of the First Division prior to 7 p. m. This may be done by radio which will be established between different divisions.

All veterans and servicemen who are home on furlough are invited to march Friday night. A complete line-up of the parade will be published in the paper Thursday.

Chairman of the parade committee is Lt. Col. George Mitchell and he is assisted by Harvey Bintrim, Harry Flansburg, Walter Conover, Arnold Barnsley, David Baughman and Angeline Venditto.

Openings Available In Naval Reserves

Although there are now 750,000 men and women on the enlisted rolls of the Naval Reserve, memberships are still open to veterans and non-veterans 17 years of age or older who are physically and mentally qualified, it is announced by Chief James Hodge of the local navy recruiting office.

The Naval Reserve, an integral part of the U. S. navy, is a voluntary organization. Except in time of national emergency members will not be ordered to active duty with the navy without their consent and may be discharged at their own request.

There are two types of membership in the Naval Reserve—organized and volunteer. The Organized Reservist is expected to attend regular weekly meetings and take part in 14 days' annual training duty.

The Volunteer Reserve, on the other hand, is composed of individual members who need not belong to any local group, nor participate in organized training activity.

The Volunteer Reserve is the type now in operation in the New Castle district. For further information on the reserve see your local navy recruiter in the Post Office building.
